

THE SENTIMENT ANALYSIS

The aim of a Sentiment Analysis is to get people's perceptions. TSENTO can measure the polarity of the answers (positive, negative or neutral) to one or more questions, starting from a written text.

This analysis is based on intelligent algorithms that are able to elaborate the natural language and analyze texts and computational linguistics.

All these techniques can also summarize great about of comments and make them fast and easy to understand.